LIFESAVING AND MERITORIOUS ACTION AWARDS

Lifesaving Awards. Recognition may be given to a youth member or adult leader of Learning for Life where the evidence presented to the National Learning for Life office, in accordance with prescribed regulations, shows that he or she saved or attempted to save life under circumstances which indicate heroism and risk to self. Learning for Life will give consideration to resourcefulness and to demonstrated skill in rescue methods. In no case shall recognition be given where it appears that the risk involved was merely in the performance of duty or the meeting of an obligation because of responsibility to supervise and give leadership to the persons whose lives were saved. The awards are:

a) Honor Plaque. The Honor Plaque may be awarded in exceptional cases to a youth or adult participant who has demonstrated unusual heroism and extraordinary skill or resourcefulness in saving or attempting to save life at considerable or extreme risk to self.

Meritorious Action Award. Recognition may be given to a youth or adult participant where the evidence presented to the National Learning for Life office, in accordance with prescribed regulations, shows that a significant or outstanding act of service, of an exceptional character, was performed. The action taken need not involve attempts of rescue or risk to self but must put into practice skills and/or ideals in Learning for Life. Recognition shall not be given where it appears that the action involved was merely in the performance of duty or the meeting of an obligation. The award is:

a) National Certificate of Merit. The National Certificate of Merit may be awarded to a youth or adult participant who has performed a significant act of service that is deserving of special national recognition.

All applications should be submitted to the National Learning for Life office through the local Learning for Life office upon duly prescribed forms, and it shall be within the discretion of the National Learning for Life office to determine which type of recognition, if any, shall be given. Recipients of these awards must be participants of Learning for Life at the time the action was performed. Awards are made in the name of the Learning for Life.
